From the President's Pen

Welcome to February! Already I notice that the days are getting longer during this mild (so far) winter.

At the January meeting, the membership voted in the following members to the Board of Directors:

President- Pamela Dulaff

Vice President- Hillary Hill

Treasurer- Peggy Niece

Secretary- Carol Zielinski

Member at Large I- Brian Daum (Exhibitions)

Member at Large II- Rosemary Barcellona (Publicity)

Art Reception for the Shadows & Silhouettes show is Sunday Feb 2 at 2pm (02/02/2020, 2pm). Did you notice on the Shadow show application that Brian has a new phone number? If not, please update your records for Brian Daum to 908-283-1255.

The program this month will be a demonstration by Doris Ettlinger. Doris is an amazing watercolorist, who is a published illustrator and instructor. Doris presented a program to us quite a few years ago and I'm pleased that she will be our presenter this month. Read more about her on page 3 of the newsletter.

Your Prez - Pamela Dulaff.

Support WCARTS with Free Donations from The AmazonSmile Foundation!

If you shop on Amazon, here's a simple and automatic way to support Warren County ARTs every time you shop, at no cost to you. When you shop at smile.amazon.com 0.5% of the purchase price from every eligible AmazonSmile purchase is donated by the AmazonSmile Foundation to your selected charitable organization. Your account information is the same for both Amazon.com and AmazonSmile along with all the same products and prices. On your first visit to AmazonSmile (smile.amazon.com), you need to select a charitable organization to receive donations before you begin shopping. Your selection is saved and then every eligible purchase made on smile.amazon.com afterwards will result in a donation to that organization. Only purchases made on Smile.Amazon.com result in donations. To select/change your charity, sign in to smile.amazon.com on your desktop or mobile phone and select "change your charity" in "Your account", enter Warren County Arts Corporation in the charity list search field and select us. Periodically you'll receive an email from AmazonSmile to let you know how much your selected charity has received.

February Program - Doris Ettlinger Watercolor Demo

Doris Ettlinger has been an illustrator since graduating from the Rhode Island School of Design. She later received an MFA from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Her work features fine draftsmanship and a masterful use of watercolor.

Over the course of her career Doris has illustrated 40 children's books, including the award winning titles: A Book for Black-Eyed Susan and The Orange Shoes. She collaborated on the Little House program for HarperCollins, producing picture books and chapter books based on the writings of Laura Ingalls Wilder. Other clients include Sleeping Bear Press, American Girl, Albert Whitman and Co., Houghton Mifflin and Simon & Schuster. She is represented by Cornell & Company. Doris and her husband Michael McFadden den - also an artist, teacher and craftsman, live in an old grist mill on the banks of the Musconetcong River in Warren County NJ, where on the 3rd floor of the mill, Doris coaches the Musconetcong Watercolor Group and teaches monthly watercolor workshops. She also teaches workshops at the Center for Contemporary Art in Bedminster. Doris is a member of the Society of Children's Book Writers and Illustrators, the Hunterdon Watercolor Society and a signature member of the Garden State Watercolor Society. Check out more of Doris's work on her website: <http://www.dorisettinger.com>.

For our February program Doris will do a short slide presentation about her history as an illustrator, watercolorist and teacher. Then she will demonstrate her process in painting a traditional dog portrait, showing how she goes beyond black, white and brown. Doris will do a second demo showing her illustrator approach to painting a dog on gessoed mat board.

As Doris paints she will discuss how to look for unexpected color, how different pigments behave and how to give character to your subject.

The meeting will be held at 1pm, Saturday, February 8th in the Oxford Township Municipal Building, 11 Green St., Oxford, NJ. The public is welcome. Light refreshments will be served.

Funding has been made possible, in part, by the Warren County Cultural & Heritage Division.
