March Program: Jean Perry - Women of Flowers Lecture & Workshop

On March 14 at 1 p.m., Warren County Arts invites you to join Professor of Art, Jean Perry, for a brief lecture on the interesting lives and works of numerous women botanical artists. This program will follow with a botanical study and watercolor painting of a flower in season.

Botanical and horticultural art are often thought to be the studies of male artists. But throughout history, women have published works and not received the recognition they deserve. Maria Sibylla Merian, Beatrix Potter, Susan Fennimore Cooper, just to name a few, brought to life the identification of numerous forms of vegetation that we know today. And they did it on their own!

The program workshop is free for members of Warren County ARTS and $10 for visitors. Materials will be provided for the workshop, however, you are welcome to bring your own watercolors & brushes too.

Funding has been made possible, in part, by the Warren County Cultural & Heritage Division of Land Preservation.

The meeting will be held from 1 - 3pm, Saturday, March 14th in the Oxford Township Municipal Building, 11 Green St., Oxford, NJ. The public is welcome. Light refreshments will be served.
