From the President's Pen

Hello Everyone!

I hope you are all taking advantage of this unplanned time to stay home and stay safe as an "artist-in-residence".

I'm sure it's no surprise that our Eagle Photography program this month with Bob Behrent is cancelled. Bob's program has been rescheduled to September. It's entirely likely that May's Oil Painting lecture with William Hobbs will also, if possible, be rescheduled to the fall.

The Day Trip scheduled for this weekend Saturday 4/4 to Clinton is also cancelled.

Annual Membership renewal due date extended to May 2nd.

Even though we can't get together there are fabulous free painting & journaling tutorials popping up all over Facebook. I can send you a list if you're interested in what I've found so far.

If you are into Acrylics - Acrylic April 2020 is starting online with The Art Sherpa on April 1st. She'll post daily 1 hour tutorials on FaceBook and on her website (theartsherpa.com). Everything I painted in March has been watercolors, so the switch to acrylics will be nice.

If you are lonesome and would just like to chat - don't hesitate to give me a call. I'd love to talk to you! 908-581-5185.

Your Prez - Pamela Dulaff.

Special points of interest:

Monthly program and April Day Trip are both CANCELLED.

Annual Membership renewal due date extended to May 2nd.

Daily Fare

The meeting this month Thursday April 9th IS CANCELLED.

Thanks Jean for a great program before the Corona Virus-19 lockdown & we all became solitary artists!
