FROM THE PRESIDENT'S PEN

May 2017

My fellow Artists,

It never ceases to astound!

One minute all is brown, dour, and drab, And the next, unperceivably at first, then gradually

It arrives.....Color!! EVERYWHERE!!!

My Spring this year was enhanced by a visit to my sister, Cathy, who took us on a jaunt to Longwood Gardens, with rows of one of my favorite flowers, Foxgloves!! And fields of tulips!! What a treat!!! And it just so happens that that will also be the 25th Anniversary location for WCARTs later this year!! As well as other fabulous places relatively nearby! I'm sure those who join us will have a fantastic time!!

And speaking of Fantastic, we have Anju Saran as our demonstrator this month, who promises to be a real Treat!! Hope to see you there!!

Reminder that the WCARTs Artist Reception and Award Ceremony for the 20th Annual Spring Open Exhibition is next Sunday (May 7th, 2-4pm). Pam's friend Norm LeDonne will be playing his Harp Guitar.

Your Prez, Patti

~MEMBERS NEWS~

Annual Spring Open Show: April 15 - June 3, 2017. Artist Reception and Award Ceremony is Sunday May 7th, 2-4pm.
 Award Categories: Oil, Acrylic, Watercolor, Pastel, Photography, Sculpture, Mixed Media, Computer Generated.

We are excited to have Norm LeDonne HGLuterMusic provide live music during the Reception. Music has been a lifetime interest for Norm, and in 2010 when he retired from his career as a scientist, he reactivated his life-long dream of becoming a performing musician. He has built a repertoire of songs, from Bach to The Beatles, playing on the harp guitar, six string acoustic and both round and square necked resonator guitars. He has also started to write and tell stories, to bring his audience more into the music. The result is a unique combination.
