FROM THE PRESIDENT'S PEN

October and our monthly program shifts to the 2nd SATURDAY each month from 1-3pm until the time changes and we start having longer days in the Spring. So our meeting this month is Saturday 10/13.

Artwork drop off for the Veterans Show is Saturday Oct 6th 10am - 12pm. Application is included with this newsletter as well on the WCARTS website.

Due to the state controlled 5 foot drawdown of Lake Hopatcong, The Lake Hopatcong cruise season will end

Saturday Oct 13th. So date for the Warren County ARTS Brunch cruise on Miss Lotta has changed from Oct 20th to Oct 6th.

Robert Romano will be back to talk to us again this month for our program about his latest book and show us pictures of the Rangeley Lakes region of Maine which is the setting for his novels. See page 3 for more information about Robert.

It's been quite awhile since the various artist gallery pages on the WCARTS website have been updated. Please provide an updated Artist statement and pictures for your page either at the October or November meeting.

In an effort to expand the promotion of Warren County ARTS, the Board wants to add a new board member position for Advertising & Promotion. We'll give you more information at the October program and request a Yea/Nay vote from the membership to revise the By-Laws. If you are interested in this position, please let a board member know.

Released in the fall of 2017, his latest novel, The River King, is also set in western Maine.

The tenth-anniversary edition of Shadows in the Stream, Bob's book of essays about fly fishing in the Rangeley Lakes Region of western Maine.

Romano's essays and short stories have appeared in various anthologies, including Christmas in the Wild, Fresh Fiction for Fresh Water Fishing, and Wildbranch: An Anthology of Nature, Environmental, and Place-Based Writing.

He writes articles for various magazines and newspapers and does his best to keep up with his blog: forgottentrout.wordpress.com.

Warren County ARTs meeting on Saturday Oct 13th, 1-3pm will feature a lecture by author Robert J. Romano. Bob gave an engrossing lecture a couple years ago about a novel just published back then, and I anticipate that we'll have an interesting program again.

Whether you fish or not, Bob's novels are well written and capture your imagination as he weaves the story around his cast of characters.

Funding for this program has been made possible, in part, by the Warren County Cultural and Heritage Commission. The public is welcome to attend, a donation is suggested from visiting non-members.
